BELGIAN FAMILY HISTORIES

Francois
Josie Wautlet $12
A trip back to thick forests, log cabins and wolves howling in the distance, to days of backbreaking work and the terror of the Great Fire of 1871. Francois is the story of the author's Belgian grandfather who immigrated to America in 1856. Based on tales he told of his life, from his early days in Belgium and the heartbreaking trip by a three masted schooner, Francois brings alive the pioneer days of the settlers in the Belgian area east of Green Bay, Wisconsin.

Chaudoir – A Belgian Family in Wisconsin
Wendy Choudoir Menzel $25
Collection of information about the Chaudoir family of Tourinnes-la-Grosse, Brabant, Belgium and their immigration to Wisconsin. A collection of the letters of Justin Chaudoir from 1873 to 1905 give readers a first person account of life in the Belgian settlements.

Hope for the Journey
Margaret LeRoy Monfils $12
Compilation of Margaret LeRoy Monfil's genealogy work and memories of stories told to her by her father and grandfather as well as her own memories of life on the farm spanning four generations. It focusses on those individuals who lived and worked on the LeRoy homestead and traditions and events rooted in her Belgian ancestry.

Forever Yesterday
Mary Ann Englebert $10
Mary Ann (Virlee) Englebert was born and raised on the farm she and her husband Donald operated. They raised their five children at Still Meadow Stables, one half mile from the village of Brussels. After the death of her father in 1987, she felt she had to write down all those memories of growing up. With pen in hand, those memories flooded the pages. For those who read this book, they will shake their heads and say "I remember that."
